

WATSON

Has Been Again Indicted For Violation of the Postal Laws.

Editor Brann's Opinion of Tommie Will Interest Many Readers.

A Most Intolerant and Narrow Minded Little Blatherskite.

WORSE THAN BENEDICT ARNOLD

Now that Thomas E. Watson, who has failed to destroy the Catholic church in America, has been again indicted for violation of the postal laws, W. C. Brann's opinion of Tommie's tommyrot, expressed in 1897, will doubtless interest many of our readers. He said:

Somebody whom I have never harmed sends me an A. P. A. tract entitled "A Good Catholic," and is issued by Tommie Watson, who once tried to run for Vice President on the Middle-of-the-Muck ticket—for the purpose of turning back the reform tide and electing the humble peon of the gold-buggers, high-tariffites and trusts. Tommie's Ape tract is simply an "ad" for a weekly paper which he seems to be getting out all by his little self somewhere in Gooberton. On the front elevation of this bombshell with which he expects to blow the Vatican across the yellow Tiber the statement is made in display type that, for the trifling sum of $1 in hand paid, "You can read the brilliant, patriotic editorials of Hon. Thos. E. Watson" for an entire year—granting of course that their Promethean brilliancy fail to set your shirt-tail afire in the meantime. There is no provision for the return of your money in case Tommie's exuberant patriotism should overpower you. We are then assured that "no Roman Pope or American Cardinal can coerce" the architect of the "brilliant and patriotic editorials" aforesaid. Now that's the kind of a man I admire! Hang a Georgia editor, say I, who sells himself to the Pope of Rome for six bits, or rushes around to an American Cardinal every morning before breakfast with the proof-sheets of his labored jucubations, humbly asking permission to print. The brilliant and patriotic editor of a Georgia paper having a paid circulation of 710 copies can not be too independent. It is solemn duty to keep watch and ward over this country and promptly put a kibosh on every conspiracy of the Pope. Like most brilliant patriots, Tommie has sacrificed a great deal for conscience's sake. When he tried to save the country by playing second tail to the Bryanite for the purpose of dividing the reform forces and electing a Republican President, the Pope and all his "priest-led citizens" straddled his collar, rode him into an open grave and piled a Cathedral on top of him to hold him down—at least I suppose they did, from the way in which this rascous little Buzfuz is chewing the rag. Had he been "A Good Catholic" he would have been elected with votes to burn; for did not Dick Bland have to hide out in the Ozark hills to escape the Presidential nomination the moment it was rumored that his wife was a "Romanist"? Did not Generals Sherman and Sheridan have to insulate themselves to avoid the Presidential lightnings which played around them continuously because they were Catholics? Sure! Tommie is doubtless correct in his assertion that the Pope controls American politics and dictates every act of Congress. That is amply proven by the fact that after all these years the Catholics have a representative in the President's Cabinet. That all Catholics are sworn enemies of this republic and peons of the Pope is demonstrated by the fact that the "Romish" Attorney General refused to permit his people to erect at their own expense a chapel on Government ground at West Point—the general public being taxed meanwhile to maintain an Episcopalian clergyman at that place. Tommie protests that he is both a Baptist and devoid of bigotry. If he can make this claim good I will undertake to secure for him an engagement at $1,000 a day in a dime museum as the greatest curio ever seen in this country. Doubtless there are many good people who are Baptists, but God's sunlight never fell upon one who was not a bigot. The man who concedes that it is possible for one to reach heaven except he be soused bodily into some sacred slop-tub is not a Baptist. If he thinks he is he has made a faulty diagnosis of his disease. It is the sworn foe of Catholicism, yet not one of its members in a million has the remotest idea what Catholicism means. It assumes that the great body of Catholics are ignorant clowns, while itself absorbing 60 per cent. of the literates of this land. The more ignorant an animal is the more bigoted Baptist it is likely to be. I can not at present think of a single American of distinction who was a member of that denomination I have passed in mental review the great American statesmen, soldiers, authors and inventors, and find only one among them who was well footed. Garfield was a Campbellite and had he not been murdered no one would have suggested that he was a great man. If any one of the immortelles was of the Baptist persuasion he was probably ashamed of that fact, as he kept it concealed. It is possible that in soaking the original sin out of a fellow any latent germs of genius he possesses may be extracted also. Tommie solemnly assures us that Catholics dare not read a book or paper that has not been formally approved by the Pope. What a foolish falsehood! I'll wager a pint of peanuts that Watson can not name half a dozen American books, papers or magazines that bear the Papal imprimatur, and another pint of the same luscious circus fruit that even his own rabid A. P. A. rot has ever been placed in the index prohibitorius. If it is not there, every Catholic in this country is privileged to read it without consulting Rome. Of the most bigoted sect of pseudo-religious fanatics that ever cursed this country, the Hon. Tommie Watson is perhaps the most intolerant and narrow-brained little blatherskite. Avant! thou contemptuous little coyote, thou pestiferous pole-cat. Benedict Arnold was a gentleman when compared to you, for his treason was open and avowed, while you stabbed the cause of the people in a friendly embrace, struck it in the back. You have had no parallel since Judas Iscariot conspired with the plutocracy to betray the idol of the people—and even Judas had decency enough to hang himself as expiation of his infamy. Shut up, thou hatchet-faced, spleenish-hearted, narrow-headed little hypocrite, for verily the world is weary of Tommie Watson. His "brilliant and patriotic editorials" are used only to underlay carpets, paper pantry shelves and for purposes less polite. I cheerfully risk my reputation as a prophet on the prediction that in less than two years his wimpy little "reform" paper will go to the bone-pile. Tommie, you are the pin-worm of American politics—a more aggravating little parasite than even Miltonus Park. Take a gentleman's advice and apply the soft pedal to your wheezy calliope get off the political stage in time to avoid the coming cataclysm of spaghettized cabbage and has-been cats. The day of your destiny's over and the star of your fate is in the nullagatawny. You are simply a fragment of worthless political seaweed cast with flabby jelly fish and dead sting rays upon an inhospitable shore, there to rot and foul the atmosphere. You have "a very ancient and fish-like smell, a smell not of the newest." You may howl a lung out, but will only evoke laughter or disgust. Occasionally some lonely Middle-of-the-Roadster dragging his No. 12' painfully through the dust may turn to look at you, perhaps toss you a dime; but you are politically dead. You may play the Baptist racket for all it's worth; but the brethren, while long on zeal are shy on boodle. Even Jehovah Boanerges Crandill, the champion leg elongator of the universe, finds it hard work to keep fat in the Baptist field—must add professional beggary to his schemes of predacity. You may lie your abortive little paper to the tall of the "Ape," but that animal is too weak in the hinder legs to pull it out of a financial hole. Go plug yourself. Shuck your long-tailed hand-me-down Albert Edward, trade your paper for a double-shovel plow, gird up your yarn galluses and make a reasonable effort to earn an honest living. Had you expended half the nervous-muscular energy in the cotton patch that you have wasted in working your jawbone you would have money to burn. "Mene mene tekel upharsin"—which means that you are entirely too light at both ends.

DAY OF JOY.

Sunday, May 17, 1914, will remain a memorable day for the 170 children who received holy communion for the first time in St. Cecilia's church. Long before the 7:30 mass began parents and friends of this large class crowded the church, the class having reason to be proud of their little ones this day. The musical programme added to the impressiveness of the mass and the occasion. In a few well chosen words the pastor expressed his joy on having brought another large class of children to their true joy—the "Bread of Life." In the afternoon this same class assembled to be enrolled in the scalular and then the first communion class of 1914 was formed into the Children of Mary Sodality—to receive holy communion the first Sunday of every month. The solemn vespers in the evening was as well attended as the morning service. Vespers sung, the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donaghue addressed the congregation, congratulating and encouraging the members of St. Cecilia's parish. The Bishop then administered the sacrament of confirmation to 173. The choir again did itself credit with the musical programme. Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament—an act of adoration and thanksgiving—brought the memorable day to a close. The pastor and those who helped prepare and direct the children received much satisfaction from the successful outcome of this blessed day.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY.

A very impressive ceremony, unique in many features, was performed in the Church of St. Alphonsus, Grand Rapids, Mich., recently when the Rev. Edward J. Jewell, pastor of St. Edward's church, Omer, Mich., formerly a Protestant minister, celebrated the high mass, after which his own daughter, Miss Matilda Jewell, received the white habit of the Order of St. Dominic. Father Jewell was formerly pastor of Trinity Episcopal church, Manistee, Mich. His wife (who died before his reception into the Catholic church) was a niece of John Mitchel, the Irish patriot. Some time ago Father Jewell had the happiness of baptizing his daughter and giving her first holy communion. Miss Jewell's name in the Dominican order will be Sister Charles of the Immaculate Jesus.

AUGUSTINIANS

Fathers Matthew Carr and John Rosseter Two Early Irish Pioneers.

Made Permanent Settlement in the United States at Philadelphia.

Washington Was Among Contributors to Their First Church.

EARLY HISTORY AND FOUNDATION

By James A. Rooney.

The Augustinian Fathers, who in the eighteenth century first made a permanent settlement in the United States at Philadelphia, were an offshoot from the Irish province of their order, whence they came during the troublous era of the French Revolution, that tremendous upheaval whose utterly un-Christian and degrading characteristics have left their unhallowed impress on the manners, laws and customs of even our own day.

It was in 1796 that the pioneers of the Augustinians, Fathers Matthew Carr, a newcomer from Dublin that very year, and John Rosseter, the latter the only resident missionary for some time in Delaware, established their first house in Philadelphia, then the political, social and commercial metropolis of the country. This foundation was undertaken with the advice and full approval of Bishop Carroll, of Baltimore, who shortly afterward appointed Dr. Carr one of his Vicars General, with jurisdiction over Eastern Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

In Philadelphia the Rev. Dr. Carr began the building of St. Augustine's church in the spring of 1796, the year of his arrival from Europe, and it was the fourth place of Catholic worship in the City of Brotherly Love. He received aid in money and materials from all classes of citizens, Protestant as well as Catholic, and what especially should be treasured is the fact that the Orangemen were ready to help sustain the orphans and maintain and improve the two homes they now occupy. It would also be the work of those assembled further the arrangements for the Fourth of July picnic to be held on the grounds surrounding St. Vincent's Asylum.

The laws approved and adopted for the government of the society were read by Secretary Dan J. Hennessy, after which a resolution was adopted that parish meetings be called and branches organized immediately, who will report to the central officers. Upon motion it was decided to hold the next meeting on Monday night, June 1.

Thomas W. Tarpy, Chairman of the committee, outlined the work for the Fourth of July picnic, making a strong appeal for united and ceaseless effort during the next seven weeks. Tickets for the picnic were distributed and can now be secured in all parts of the city.

Rev. Father Deppen, the "father" of the orphans, expressed himself highly pleased with the outlook for the society and the future of the orphans. It would be the aim of the society to increase the happiness of these little children and to maintain and safeguard them. It was eighty years since the orphans were first looked after by the saintly Mother St. Catherine, and they were wise in organizing under the sanction of the church. Father Deppen reviewed the struggle during all these years, saying that while the orphans were sheltered in a home, it still was not their own home. He had wished and prayed for such a society for twenty-five years, and it was most pleasing to note that his hopes were about to be realized. Before taking his seat he commended the St. Joseph Orphan Society and the great good that organization has done.

Another Augustinian was Father Phillip Lariscy. He was one of the second Newfoundland band in 1818 and he ministered to the Catholics of Boston and New Bedford in 1820, being the first missionary who preached to the Irish of Boston in their native tongue. We find him in Newburgh and on Staten Island in 1821, at Paterson, N. J., in the same year and saying the first mass in Brooklyn in 1822.

Equally active as a missionary was Father James O'Donnell, who was professor as an Augustinian in 1832, the first in the United States. He was ordained in 1837 by Bishop Dubois, of New York, who sent him to Salina (now Syracuse), where he built its first Catholic church. He was at St. Paul's, Brooklyn, in 1839, and founded St. Mary's parish in what was then Williamsburg in 1841, and he found time to visit the Catholics scattered along the south shore of Long Island as far east as Sag Harbor and Montauk Point.

In Philadelphia the Augustinians instituted what is said to have been the first sodality in the United States for Catholics of either sex, the Confraternity of Our Mother of Consolation, whose sodality manual, "The Spiritual Mirror," was printed by Augustine Fagan in 1812. A copy of it is preserved in the library of Villanova monastery by Father Thomas C. Middleton, O. S. A., the historian of the order.

Besides attending to their parishioners the fathers bore the comforts of religion to those of other districts, such as Darby, Frankford, Manayunk and Haverford, where the Rev. Dr. Hurley visited in the 20's of the last century. In 1827 he blessed the Church of St. Denis, still standing and but little changed from its primal form.

NOTRE DAME WINS AGAIN.

Notre Dame won the triangular competition with Wabash College and Indiana University Friday night by its affirmative team, defeating the Wabash negative team by a unanimous decision at Notre Dame, its negative team defeating the Indiana affirmative team at Bloomington. The question was "Resolved. That the Initiative and Referendum Should Be Adopted in Indiana." Wabash was second, its affirmative team defeating the Indiana negative team at Crawfordsville. The members of the Notre Dame affirmative team were Eugene O'Connell, J. Clivio Smith and Timothy Galvin. The negative team was George Scheuster, Fred Gushurst and Emile Lanahan.

SLATTERY CONFIRMED.

Thomas D. Slattery, of Maysville, who last week was appointed United States District Attorney for the Eastern district of Kentucky, succeeded Edwin P. Morrow, who soon entered his new duties, his nomination having been confirmed by the United States Senate. Slattery isn't a virgin of the "thirteen jinx." In fact thirteen is a lucky number for him. He is the thirteenth son of his father, and he is a pretty husky, healthy individual with hundreds of friends. He is a graduate of "Enter" College at Danville, and has been practicing law for twenty years with his headquarters at Maysville.

INTO ETERNAL REST.

On Friday afternoon of last week there passed to it eternal reward the soul of Mrs. Margaret McGinn, the dearly loved wife of Joseph P. McGinn, 513 West Chestnut street. For months Mrs. McGinn had been lingering in the arms of death, but with true Catholic faith she responded to the call, fortified by the frequent reception of the sacraments and the prayers of many friends. Born in this city sixty years ago, she was one of the most highly respected members of the Cathedral congregation. Besides her husband to mourn her Mrs. McGinn leaves two children, Bernard and Gertrude McGinn, and two sisters, Mrs. L. P. Glass, of Louisville, and Mrs. Mary Pottinger of Owenboro. A model wife, a perfect mother and a rare friend has been taken away in her demise. Her hospitality was boundless, and while always keyed to humanity's sorrows or joys, no spiritual or temporal work of mercy ever appealed to her in vain. Her funeral was held Monday morning from the Cathedral, when Rev. Father Rock sang the solemn requiem mass, assisted by Father Eugene Donohue as deacon and Father Frankenberger as sub-deacon. Father Rock, in the sermon, spoke of the exemplary life of the deceased, the Christian fortitude and beautiful Catholic spirit she always exhibited. To the bereaved husband and children goes out the sympathy of the community.

ENTHUSIASTIC.

Monday night the meeting hall of Division 3, A. O. H., was crowded with members and candidates, who were enthusiastic when they heard the report of the Home Committee. This report was that the division would be able to hold its first meeting in the new club house on June 1. President Maloney had the pleasure of obliging eight more candidates, who will prove staunch Hibernians. The Home Committee reported additional donations of $100 to the building fund, and also the purchase of some handsome furniture for the hall and other rooms of the house. The building, they said, is all finished with the exception of the papering, which will be completed this week. Announcement was made that the Hibernian Social Club will entertain with a eucere and lotto party in the new home on Tuesday evening, June 2, and the division extends a cordial invitation to the general public and the Hibernians of the Falls Cities to attend. The new home is located at Eighteenth and Portland avenue, and is well worth a visit.

FATHER FALLON'S FIRST MASS.

The ordination to the holy priesthood of the Rev. John Fallon, of St. John's congregation, who has completed his theological studies at St. Meinrad's in Indiana, will occur here on June 4, when the Right Rev. Bishop O'Donaghue will confer holy orders and induce him to his high calling. On Sunday, June 7, Father Fallon will celebrate his first mass at St. John's church, corner Clay and Walnut, an event in which the entire congregation will be interested. While all arrangements for this solemn event have not been made, the pastor, the Rev. G. W. Schuhmann, has received the acceptances to assist at this mass of those priests in the city who were former members of this parish. Among them are the Rev. Michael Melody, chaplain of St. Vincent's Orphan Home; the Rev. John T. Hill, pastor of St. Ann's church; the Rev. George Connor, pastor of St. William's; the Rev. John D. Kalaher, pastor of St. Columba's, and the Rev. Francis O'Connor, assistant at St. Cecilia's.

ARREST ANNA LOWRY.

Upon the sworn complaint of a Catholic resident of Winona, Minn., who was present at a lecture delivered on Sunday, March 15, by Anna Lowry, who styles herself an "ex-nun," a warrant was issued for her arrest on the charge of having used language unfit for public address. Anna Lowry left Winona immediately after her lecture before the warrant could be served. The arrest was made on May 11, when Anna Lowry appeared again in the State of Minnesota. She was taken to Winona and placed in the city jail. The following day she was given a hearing, at which she pleaded "not guilty." Her trial followed on May 16. In giving his decision the Judge stated that the evidence on both sides attested the guilt of the prisoner. Sentence was pronounced and penalty was fixed as a fine or period of confinement in jail. The decision of the Judge was followed by a protest on the part of the Mayor of the city forbidding Anna Lowry access to any public hall in Winona for the purpose of disseminating her malicious and immoral teaching. The city of Winona is to be congratulated on this summary treatment of this exponent of anti-American and anti-Christian bigotry.

VISITED CAREY SHRINE.

Richard Murphy, O. M. C. of St. Anthony's church, and Rev. Edmund Kaiser, O. M. C. pastor of St. Peter's, were in Carey, Ohio, last week, where they assisted at the semi-annual pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Consolation when many miraculous cures have taken place. Father Murphy preached the Sunday evening sermon. Father Kaiser preached Thursday night. The annual pilgrimage to this noted shrine is made during the month of August.

The Orange leaders seem de-prospects encouraging opposition from Republicans and Progressives.

Democrats Not Sanguine of Success in the Event of His Nomination.

Percy Haley Confining Attention to Finding Leader For This District.

ALL PULLING FOR CAPT. FOX

The Kentucky correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer is authority for the statement that at present writing Beckham looks the strongest in the race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator, this being gleefully reprinted in the Evening Post, but neither the writer nor the Post offered any explanation for the fact that Republican and Progressive candidates are springing up like mushrooms, they calculating that if the ex-Governor is given the nomination they will have a splendid chance for victory in November, and many wise political sharpars are predicting that if ex-Gov. Willson secures the Republican nomination he is sure to draw strength from the Democratic ranks, as in his previous political races, and in addition his nomination by the Republicans would heal the breach between them and the Progressives. Right here in Louisville, where the Progressives are stronger in relative proportion than any other part of the country, two of the foremost leaders, former City Attorney Clayton Blakey and C. C. Stoll, former member of the Board of Public Works, are favorable to the fusion idea, and it is believed that they will endorse either ex-Gov. Willson or Richard P. Ernst of Covington, for the nomination.

There can be no denying the fact that the possibility of Beckham's success in the primary has given the Republicans and Progressives renewed hope, while on the other hand the state of affairs has set many Democrats to thinking, they realizing that the nomination of Beckham puts a United States Senatorship in jeopardy for the Democratic party, and many of those who had announced their intention of voting for the ex-Governor, if for no other reason than to eliminate him and his man Haley from activity in State politics, have begun to waver in their determination, and it is predicted that the Beckham boom may begin to wane in the near future. It has been freely predicted in these columns that the city of Louisville, from a Democratic standpoint, was unalterably opposed to Beckham from any angle, and with the Democratic organization keeping hands off strictly a big majority vote would be registered against his chances, DUTY WELL DONE.

With commingled feelings of pleasure and pride admirers of United States Senator O'Gorman throughout the country read his able and patriotic address against the shameful surrender of American rights in the greatest engineering achievement of the age, rights secured by the application of American genius and by the lavish expenditure of American money. With the Irish World, we are glad that he delivered on the floor of the United States Senate the ablest of the many able speeches against the humiliating and the treacherous proposal that the United States confess before the world that it deliberately violated its solemnly plighted word when Congress enacted that American coastwise shipping should be permitted to use the Panama canal free of charge. Senator O'Gorman's cogent argument has had a wonderful effect, and to some it appears that it influenced President Wilson in his address at the Barry monument unveiling.

MENACE WHINES.

Rev. Father F. F. Rossman, of the diocese of Wheeling, W. Va., has instituted suit against the Menace for $50,000 in retaliation for vile and filthy charges published in that organ last fall. The mudgutter sheet in its latest issue whines that Father Rossman waited until its finances were at a low ebb before bringing suit and is printing a blank to be circulated by its dupes for the purpose of raising a defense fund. When the case comes to trial the Menace will probably duplicate the performance in the Philadelphia libel suit—plead guilty to lying but at the same time gather in a few more shekels from the sucker brigade.

GETTING TOGETHER.

The Columbian shows a fair spirit in declaring that Catholics should take part with their Protestant fellow citizens in all movements to improve the condition of the poor, to put down commercialized vice, to purify politics, to beautify their home town, to regulate dangerous traffics and to promote in other ways the common welfare. We are all citizens of the one country, and on the ground of our citizenship we have a level where we can meet and co-operate with people of all denominations. When we come into close relations with our neighbors in patriotic enterprises we shall know them better personally and esteem them more highly and they will understand us better and think more of us. They will be more willing and ready to co-operate with us in preventing the dissemination of lies and calumnies against our church and in checking the onslaughts of vicious anti-Catholic literature. Let us get together in all that makes for a kinder feeling between man and man and for a better and happier country.

EMINENTLY PRACTICAL.

An eminently practical suggestion of the Catholic Union of Missouri is contained in the request, couched in the form of a resolution, and directed to Catholics everywhere in the country, asking them to refrain from visiting the Panama-Pacific Exposition on those days on which the notorious ex-Mayor of Rome, Ernesto Nathan, attends in any official capacity. This resolution, adopted by the State convention at Jefferson City, provides an excellent means of showing the displeasure of American Catholics with the selection of Nathan as the official representative of the Italian Government to the exposition.

WOMEN AND STYLE.

The prevailing styles of dress, which are not only unbecoming to most women, and many really indecent as well as a menace to life and limbs, are causing thinking women to speak out and take action. The folly of the style craze is well set forth by a sensible woman in the following:

"Just as long as women bow down and become slaves to fashion, as most are now doing, just so long will extreme styles be forced upon them. As long as we suffer ourselves to be governed by fashion we surely can not consider ourselves competent to vote. We have made ourselves the laughing stock of men in general and if women wish to stand shoulder to shoulder with men in the business and political world they must show

ST. ANN'S CHURCH.

Last Sunday was another happy day for the parents and children of St. Ann's parish, of which the Rev. John T. Hill is the pastor. The church and sanctuary were beautifully decorated with spring plants and flowers and the altars ablaze with lights for the twenty-two children who received their first holy communion at the high mass at 8 o'clock in the morning. The church was thronged with people, who returned again at 2:30 in the afternoon, when with impressive ceremony they were enrolled and received the scapular.

DEDICATION AND CONCERT.

The large two manual pipe organ, built by the Pilcher Organ Company, of this city, for St. George's church, Eighteenth and Magnolia, will be dedicated tomorrow night with beautiful concertos and a grand sacred concert.

The musical programme, which will consist of eighteen high class numbers, will be rendered by a select choir of twenty-five voices under the direction of Prof. P. A. Stark, with Mrs. Stark presiding at the organ. Rev. Ignatius Wilkins, O. F. M., who is a widely known composer of sacred music, will preach the dedicatory sermon. Rev. Father Weiss, the pastor, extends a cordial invitation to the public to be present.

Nothing will be left undone to make the trip an enjoyable one, as has been all others undertaken by the Central Committee. At Tell City the excursionists will be given a rousing reception, and there they will participate in the silver jubilee of one of the priests of that place. The round trip fare will be $1.65, which will also pay for a river ride.

NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The national convention of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America will be held in Indianapolis next week, beginning Tuesday morning, when the delegates will attend high mass at St. John's church, and the business sessions will be held at the Hotel Savarin. DOUBLE WEDDING.

Tuesday morning St. Vincent de Paul's church was the scene of a pretty double wedding, when Miss Minnie Guenther and Bernard Hovekamp and Miss Rose Hovekamp and Edward Hodapp were united in marriage by the Rev. A. J. Thome, who was also the celebrant of the nuptial high mass. The contracting parties are well known in German Catholic circles, and a large gathering of their friends were present to witness the ceremony and extend congratulations.

spreading their sails to the breeze and showing what they can do in all weathers. Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger is hailed as a marvel of promise, for no other reason apparently than that her model is eccentric. It is all very well to speak of her as "the most wonderful boat of the kind ever built in Europe," but the American designers have had a thing or two up their sleeves also. Without doubt one of the new creations will soon be declared a world beater, for our yacht architects have always improved upon their old defender models. Before the end of May the new boats will probably have their trial spins under the eyes of the experts and Sir

Thomas will learn he has something to beat.

HINTS ON STYLE.

A good deal of dark, changeable taffeta is seen, especially in afternoon gowns.

There seems to be no limit to the fashion in which moire ribbons and silks are held.

Light net top laces continue to have things all their own way in the fashion world.

Midy dresses, sailors, Norfolk and Russian effects are all good for children's wear.

Corset waists are actually becoming fashionable, the legitimate result of the desire for a plump figure.

Accordion plaited dresses are coming in again; usually they have wide sashes over the hips and thin tulcs.

Organie having started as collars, is increasing in favor for other parts of dresses. Some entire dresses are made of it.

The summer suits of cotton or linen are no longer designed with any thought of laundering; they all have to be dry cleaned.

Dainty leaf and flower patterns are among the most important in veilings. Insect and butterfly designs are used in the beauty patch sorts.

SHAMROCK VS. DEFENDERS.

It will be an agreeable relief from wars and rumors of war, domestic and foreign, to read about the trials of Shamrock IV. and the Americas

Cup defenders. They will soon be here.

What the Club Plan Is And What It Means to You

The Club Plan is an extended payment plan instituted purely and simply for the convenience of our patrons who wish to buy Household Goods, such as Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, etc.

When you join the Club Plan you are asked to pay 3 per cent of the amount of your purchases for joining; for instance

The membership fee on a $25.00 purchase would be 75c.

The membership fee on a $50.00 purchase would be $1.50.

The membership fee on greater purchases would of course be in proportion.

You are then asked to pay 10 per cent. of your total purchase as the first payment. For instance, on a $25.00 purchase you pay $2.50 down in addition to the membership fee, making a total of $3.25. The goods are then delivered to you and you arrange to pay the balance in small weekly or monthly payments.

When you consider that goods bought on the Club Plan are purchased at our cash prices—whether special or regular—you will more clearly see that our membership fee is nothing in comparison with the additional cost installment houses place on their goods for the privilege of time payments.

FURNITURE, CARPETS, RUGS, HOUSE FURNISHINGS AND OTHER HOUSEHOLD GOODS ARE SOLD ON THE CLUB PLAN.

Any further information regarding the Club Plan will be cheerfully given by our salespeople or at the Credit office on the fifth floor.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 4 meets Monday night. The Menace is now publishing a fake Hibernian oath.

Encrue and lotto by Hibernian Social Club in club house June 2.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Indianapolis have organized another Juvenile division.

More than 300 women will sing at the memorial services for deceased members in Boston.

Twenty-five candidates received the degrees from the San Francisco County Board meeting.

Every division should insist on their delegates being present at County Board meetings.

With united support for the annual picnic each division treasury will be materially helped.

The membership contest between Minneapolis and St. Paul will close with a great initiation on May 31.

Five divisions, numbering 1,500 men, turned out at the cornerstone laying of St. Peter's school at Hartford, Conn.

Lieut. Gov. Barry was a special guest and delivered an address at the banquet of the Ladies' Auxiliary at Malden, Mass.

Many eyes are turning toward Division 3 and it need not be surprising if there is a consolidation before the end of the year.

The national convention at Norfolk will be a grand reunion of the Irish race. Whether members or not, all are invited.

The Hibernians of Urbana, Ohio, have presented a complete set of the Catholic Encyclopedia to the Public Library of that city.

Cleveland Hibernians have set a mark for 1,000 new members for 1914, and over 300 candidates have applied for the first initiation.

During the month of June there will be business and work for all the divisions, which will call for the presence of members at meetings.

Ladies' Auxiliary 5 of San Francisco will award a beautiful silk American flag to the society having the largest representation at its annual ball.

Following the big initiation at Ames, Iowa, 200 Hibernians sat down to the banquet, over which Rev. Edward Hayes presided as toastmaster.

The auxiliaries of St. Paul will give entertainments for the fund for the St. Patrick's Chapel in the new Cathedral. One given last week by the Auxiliary 4 netted $500.

Members who do not attend at least one meeting a month are in their duty. Among this class are many who are always first to put in their claims against their divisions.

Massachusetts Hibernians will participate in the parade at Cohasset next Saturday, when the monument to the Irish immigrants who lost their lives when the British brig St. John was wrecked on Minot's Ledge, over sixty years ago, will be unveiled.

Division 1 of Covington sent the following greeting to National President Regan, who was one of the speakers at the Barry monument exercises in Washington last Saturday: "Kentucky, the State of the earliest pioneers of the West, sends greetings to you, our worthy National President, that the Barrys and others will be there to do homage to the man."

HOLDING THEIR OWN.

Despite the crippled condition of the Louisville ball team they have held their own during the past week and are now contesting with Milwaukee for the top rung of the ladder, the latter team being lucky thus far to have no one out of their regular lineup with the exception of Manager Clark, while the Colonels have been minus the services of Shortstop Beumiller and Second Baseman McLarry, the latter being especially missed on account of his hitting. The Kansas City team will play again this afternoon and tomorrow, the Minneapolis team coming Monday for four games. Some rattling games are promised, these old warriors now waking up with the advent of warm weather, and can be counted on as a pennant contender. It has been suggested by many of the fans that, on the return of Beumiller, Clothier be shifted to third base, using Dodge as the utility infielder.

FONTAINE FERRY.

For its second week Fontaine Ferry's management announces a new and varied selection of attractions, which are expected to tax the big and beautiful resort to capacity. The vaudeville bill at the park's variety show is one that "spells class" from start to finish, and will be headlined by Gertrude Barnes, the well known prima donna alluded to as "the new star of 1914." An entirely new programme will be provided by Natiello and his band in the free concerts, introducing selections from the latest grand and light operas and ragtime.

A Sister Recommends It Most Highly.

Keweenaw, Wis., August, 1912. Many of the Sisters are using Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic. I tried one bottle for nervousness and sleeplessness, and was greatly relieved. I slept well, but felt much better since, therefore recommend the Tonic most highly to all those suffering similarly.

Helen G. McLaughlin, of Overly, N. Dak., says that Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic is certainly an excellent Nerve Tonic. I was always run down from nervousness and sleeplessness, but after taking the Tonic her nerves became stronger and she slept well.

Ruth, of St. Louis, Ind., says she took Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness, of which he suffered since 14 years. Since then he sleeps good and recommends the Tonic to all needing it for that purpose.
